MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT
FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE RULE 55 ALSO RULE 8(d)

Comes now Petitioner Charles Randall Harrison, acting in propria persona, and in want of counsel and avers as follows.

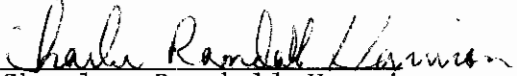

The Respondents in the above-captioned cause have violated the scheduling order of the Court issued August 5, 2005, and have procedurally defaulted their response to Petitioner's Section 2241 and their failure to deny Petitioner's claims are admitted as true.

Petitioner respectfully moves this Honorable Court to order an evidentiary hearing to allow Petitioner to expound on his issues.

Petitioner respectfully states that his claims state substantial claims for relief and are cognizable in a Section 2241 Petition.

CONCLUSION

THEREFORE Petitioner states that this Honorable Court should order a hearing and allow Petitioner to expediently prosecute his suit.
